

ADULT WARNINGS

1. You have the right to remain silent.

2. Anything you say can and will be used against you in a court of law.

ADULT WARNINGS

3. You have the right to an attorney. If you cannot afford an attorney, one will be provided for you.

NEW KCSO WARNINGS

1. You have the right to remain silent, which means that you don't have to say anything.

2. It's OK if you don't want to talk to me.

3. If you do want to talk to me, I can tell the juvenile court judge or adult court judge and Probation Officer what you tell me.

NEW KCSO WARNINGS

4. You have the right to talk to a free lawyer right now.

That free lawyer works for you and is available at any time – even late at night.

That lawyer does not tell anyone what you tell them.

That free lawyer helps you decide if it's a good idea to answer questions.

That free lawyer can be with you if you want to talk with me.

ADULT WARNINGS

4. Do you understand the rights I have just read to you?

5. With these rights in mind, do you wish to speak to me?

NEW KCSO WARNINGS

5. If you start to answer my questions, you can change your mind and stop at any time. I won't ask you any more questions.

1. Do you understand?
(If yes, then continue to number 2)

2. Do you want to have a lawyer?
(If no, continue to number 3)

3. Do you want to talk with me?
(If yes, proceed with questioning)